CHAPTER 141.

AN ACT relating to the professor of military science and tactics in colleges, university and other institutions in the state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

To rank of colonel of infantry. SECTION 1. The governor of the state may commission any retired United States army officer who holds the position of professor of military science and tactics in the state university, or at any seminary or college within this state maintaining military instruction and drill in its course of study, and having not less than one hundred students on its drill-roll at any one term, to the rank of colonel of infantry; said commission, however, shall not entitle such professor of military science and tactics to command in the state militia.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 6, 1901.
